1. The panels are factory assembled and applied in accordance with the specifications and guidelines of SureTight Insulated Panel Corporation.
2. The nailbase panel is approved as a single component applied to a structural roof deck in accordance with the specifications and guidelines of SureTight Insulated Panel Corporation. If a layer of insulation is staggered below the nail base panel, the Elk approval is contingent upon application in strict accordance with the double layering system approved by SureTight Insulated Panel Corporation.

5. Elk does not design or approve structural deck systems. Vapor barriers may be recommended or required according to the guidelines of SureTight Insulated Panel Corporation, local code requirements, or design professional.
6. It is the responsibility of the design professional to examine the need for structural ventilation and to ensure interior air quality. For any building, construction must be in compliance with local codes.
